Lauberhorn Ski Race

The Austrians were favourites in the Swiss International Lauberhorn Skiraces. The slalom track was exacting and difficult even for these te-pranking aces.

No. 5, the Austrian Anderl Heisterer was second in the combination. No. 7, the Swiss slalom king Hans Ferrer.

This is the winning run of the Swiss Guide Martin Julien. 67,6 seconds was the quickest time of the day.

The Austrian were also top-favourites of the downhill race over 3,8 kms and 1000 m. difference in height.

Toni Seiler, Kitsbühl, was even quicker than the track record .

He was winner of the combined downhill-slalom race.
