

PAGEANT OF HAIR STYLES.

Doubtless inspired by an "Ocean wave" a hairstyle of centuries ago is recreated for a Pageant of Hairdressing. "Petronius", adds a touch of ancient Rome to the show which takes place at Belle Vue, Manchester. Now a style called "Winter Princess".

"Medusa", the Snake Goddess makes her bow. But women don't have this sort of thing all their own way. Dennis Jones models a style known as "the curled semi-crew cut".

Now the "D.A. Cut", which, contrary to rumour, stands for District Attorney. Cuts of all styles are displayed, though some can be taken with a pinch of salt apparently. Perhaps the most daring man of the evening is Gilbert Wallis, a willing victim of the brush-cut.

"The Teddy Boy" is the appropriate name for this style. Another favourite: the "Tony Curtis". The models face the judges who'll decide the "Hair Beauty Queen", and her escort "The Gentleman of 1955". For once its the males who come in for most attention. Crew-cut, Teddy Cut, Bop Cut, or Razor Cut - which will it be?

Applause for winner - Dennis Jones and his curled semi-crew cut. The Bernard Brothers settle for the old "short back and sides"!
