

BILLY GRAHAM'S GLASGOW CRUSADE.

Fifteen thousand people enter Kelvin Hall in Glasgow for the first meeting of Billy Graham's All-Scotland Crusade. Hundreds have waited as long as four hours in rain and snow to hear the message of the young American evangelist who drew such enormous crowds during his London meetings last year. Billy Graham is accompanied by members of his crusade team onto the platform. Dr. Graham opens his address to the vast assembly by speaking of his mission in Scotland:

470 people declare themselves for Christ during the meeting - the largest number ever to do so at the opening night of a Billy Graham campaign.
