BEVAN SAYS "SORRY"

Mr. Aneurin Bevan, who recently had the Labour Party whip withdrawn from him, attends a meeting of the National Executive of the Party at which he might well have been expelled altogether. After a three-hour discussion in Transport House comes the verdict that he is still in. Mr. Attlee received a handsome apology from Mr. Bevan for any pain he might have caused him. The Executive however, warned that drastic action would follow any future violation of Party discipline.
