

5-PP&J01

55/31.

BANNISTER GETS WORLD TITLE:

Doctor Roger Bannister is the guest of honour when members of the Variety Club of Great Britain meet to see the Chairman, G.J. Latta, introduce him together with Record Miler of 1902, Joe Binks.

Jim Peters of marathon fame.

Gordon Pirie.

Manager Jack Crump and Jean Desforges. The presentation is made by Dr. Harold Arrahams, winner of the hundred metres Olympic title in 1924. The trophy is awarded to Bannister by the Helms Foundation on the recommendation of the American Amateur Athletic Association which nominated him as the world's outstanding athlete in 1954., for his performances at Oxford and in the Empire Games at Vancouver when he ran a miracle mile in three minutes, fifty-eight point eight seconds.