HULL SPASTICS BOY SCOUT AT WINDSOR

Twelve-year old Ronnie Walker of 69 East Park Avenue, Hull, a spastic boy scout is expected to meet the Queen at Windsor (on Sunday, April 24).

Ronnie, who was born crippled, is a keen scouter and is one of 12 physically handicapped scouts chosen from all over Britain to represent all handicapped scouts at the Annual Saint George's Day Service and parade of Queen's Scouts.

It is expected that the Queen will meet Ronnie and other handicapped scouts at approximately 2 p.m. in the Quadrangle of Windsor Castle.

Ronnie's parents are members of the National Spastics Society through their local group, "Friends of the Spastics Society in Hull and District".
