

NEWCASTLE CROWDS CHEER CUP
WINS.

Home with the F.A. Cup are the Wembley heroes - and crowds pack the streets of Newcastle to give the team a real heroes welcome.

The drive to their football ground at St. James' Park is a triumphant procession. A proud moment indeed, for Newcastle United, a football club with very humble beginnings on Tyneside. A proud moment, too, for Captain Jimmy Scouler as he holds aloft the trophy which is known to millions simply as "The Cup"

More crowds are there to cheer Scouler and his team mates at the football ground. All Newcastle seems to have turned out to show the Lane side what support they have today. Disappointments are forgotten in this great moment of triumph.

One by one the victorious eleven men are cheered - with a special ovation for popular forward Jackie Milburn as he takes the cup.

Jackie has his own way of replying before Scouler speaks:
