

MRS. AMERICA.

At Ellinor Village, Florida, 49 finalists in the nation-wide "Mrs. America" contest, show their skill in domestic arts. On the menu (for the winner) is a crown and fifteen thousand dollars in prizes!

For the first time, there's no bathing-suit competition - the winner being chosen for the best dinner and the neatest home.

The final selection is announced - Mrs. Ramona Deitemeyer Nebraska mother of five children, the new "Mrs. America"

A proud moment - and a happy one ^{for} of Mr. Deitemeyer, whose "little woman" has won a big prize!
