

2-084001

55/45.

PRINCESS OPENS STUDENT CENTRE:

West Indian students in London now have a club of their own, opened by Princess Margaret in Kensington.

Chatting with students, the Princess recalls her own recent visit to their home country and the hospitality and friendliness she found there. She tours the club (which cost £20,000 provided by the West Indian Government), and examines Carribean handicrafts.

A fine centre for London's welcome guests.