FRENCH GRAND PRIX.

The French Grand Prix, Europe's richest race for three-year-old colts and fillies, is off to a flying start at the Longchamps track near Paris. This year's Derby winner Phil Drake No.17, is among the leaders from the first furlong. His jockey, Freddy Palmer, has ridden three winners in the Grand Prix in five years, and he's all set for a fourth.

There's over £30,000 to come to Phil Drake's owner, Madame Susy Volterra, if he wins. And, of course, the double glory of victory in Derby and Grand Prix in the same year.

Bewitched is in the lead, but Phil Drake on the outside is gradually increasing his stride. Beam Prince the Second is closing up. Now it's Phil Drake leading - Phil Drake, Bewitched, Beam Prince, coming in for a grand finish. And Phil Drake's time for the race breaks a 29-year old record. Congratulations to Phil Drake and Madame Volterra!
