1st June, 1955.

Dear Miss Field,

Once again the "Sunday Dispatch" 100-mile Walk is to be held - this year commencing on Friday, 1st July, and finishing on Saturday 2nd.

It will start on the Friday evening at 6 p.m. from Coudson Hall - the competitors will then proceed towards London, turning at Big Ben, down to the Brighton Aquarium. They will turn there and walk back along the main road to Coudson - a total distance of 104½ miles - finishing at approximately midday on the Saturday.

It is anticipated that there will be over 100 entries, and the winner will be presented with the Sunday Dispatch Permanent Challenge Trophy by Charles Eade, the Editor. Other prizes will be presented by the Lord Mayor of London at the Mansion House on September 19th at 6 p.m.

I shall be grateful if you will let me know, in due course, whether you are able to cover this event.

Yours sincerely,

FRANK COVEN
