

55/63

TUNCOATS RETURN:

Three G.I's who stayed in China after the Korean War - William Gewart, Lewis Griggs, Othe Ball - have changed their minds and come home. Their families meet them at San Francisco.

Twenty-two year old William Gewart is greeted by his mother, and Griggs' widowed mother greets her son, also twenty-two.

Othe Ball is overcome as he meets his wife and the four-year-old daughter he has never seen.

After two years in Communist China, the ex-P.O.W's are arrested on charges of betraying fellow-prisoners and urging an American general to desert. Court martial admits the three who came back