CORRIDA AT VALAURIS

On Sunday a "fiesta" has been organized, the first part of which was staged last year.

This picturesque manifestation will be carried on in the afternoon on the "plaza" under the form of a corrida without killing.

Accompanied by the orchestra of Tomas and his Merry Boys, Pablo Picasso the famous modern painter, made a paseo through the street of this city of pottery industrie. In the evening Picasso and his friends attended a funny corrida "Charlotte" in the course of which an american cow boy staged a rodeo.

In the afternoon, Manolo del Campo, P  p   Montijo and Jodelito Lahuerta will enter into the arena which has been erected on the Place de la Lib  ration. Their mission will be to initiate the spectators with the art of bullfighting. After having shown, in their spectacular clothes, all the movements which made famous Manolete, Belmonte and Luis Miguel Dominguin, they gave their places to the amateur-bullfighters desirous of fighting a bull "the horns of which are protected just in Pampeluna.
