

55/72

MALIK AT FLOWER SHOW.

The Soviet Ambassador, Mr. Jacob Malik and Mrs. Malik are guests of honour when they visit Harrogate's sixteenth annual flower show. The Mayor, Councillor Robert Riley escorts them through displays of flowers which Mr. Malik later described as magnificent.

Especially, it was discovered were Mr. Malik's favourite flowers and 'Peace' he said, was his favourite word. So that it was particularly appropriate when he was presented with a newly bred rose called "Peace".

The peace rose is to be planted in the Russian Embassy gardens in London - a symbol, as we all hope, of the name it bears.