

55/73

KENAN-TULI FIGHT.

It's real fighting all the way when Peter Kenan defends his Empire bantaweight title against South Africa's Jake Tuli at Cathkin Park, Glasgow. In the very first round the tough little Kulu collects a cut mouth, but comes back to put the champion on the canvas for a count of eight. Peter can see it's going to be a man-sized job to hold that title!

Kenan's up, and he slams into the African, right, left - but Tuli's giving as good as he gets, and more.

A vicious right misfires - and Kenan brings himself down.

He tries everything in the book to find an opening, but the little African's out to get that Empire title, and right now the odds are in his favour.

For nine rounds the champion's on the defensive, but both fighters are battling gamely. Tuli's still inflicting a lot of punishment, and Kenan slips several times.

But every time he recovers, and by the fourteenth round he's on the attack again. Tuli's tiring now, and the Scots boy seeks eagerly for an opening...and he's found it!

The gallant little challenger just won't give up - dazed as he is, he tries to struggle to his feet - but it's no use! The Empire bantaweight title stays in Scotland, nobly defended in one of the best fights of Peter Kenan's career!