

55/82.

INSTITUTE OF DIRECTORS:

While Labour debates at Margate, management debates in London, at the Institute of Directors' conference. The men who control the biggest concerns in Britain's industrial and commercial life meet to discuss future policy. Viscount Chandos speaks of the Institute's nature and purpose: