

WOLVES V. DYNAMO.

Wolverhampton Wanderers are at home to their old rivals Moscow Dynamo. The Russians, in white-ringed shirts, kick off under the Molineux floodlights.

Dynamo are quickly on the offensive. Right wing Shabrov tries to dodge past Bill Shorthouse, but it bounces off Shorthouse and goalie Williams clears.

Now the Wolves take up the attack. The ball goes to right half Bill Slater. The Russian defence closes up, and for a moment the battle sways back and forth in the Dynamo half.

Right back Eddie Stuart passes to Johnny Hancocks, who shoots - but skipper Krizhevsky punts it over the bar.

Wolves take the corner.

Wilshaw to Slater, who bangs it into the net! One up to Wolves, in the fifteenth minute!

Centre-forward Yuri Kuznetsov leads an assault but Wolves' left-half Clamp gets it away.

The Wolves' attackers provide plenty of work for goalie Lev Yashin - nicknamed "The Lion".

Wolves kick off for the second half, fighting to increase their one-nil lead.

Inside right Peter Broadbent captures the ball before the Dynamo goalmouth. He passes to Bill Slater, who takes a shot at the goal - but Yashin's too quick for him.

Still one-nil but the Russians are on their toes, and this could be anyone's game. Krizhevsky loses the ball to Clamp, the Wolves left half, and Clamp kicks away upfield.

Jimmy Mullen has it - he shoots - and it's another goal! Wolves two, Dynamo nil! Revenge for that Moscow defeat is really in sight!

But the Dynamos aren't beaten yet. Iiyin has a try - but Bert Williams clears far upfield.

A corner in the Dynamos' half - Broadbent jumps - and that was a near one!

Not much time left, and Dynamo are playing better every minute.

The home team are being forced more and more on the defensive.

The Russian Attack sweeps home, and from the very edge of the penalty box Ilyin finds the net!

So it's Wolves two, Dynamo one - and a fine fighting game from both sides.
