

SUNDERLAND V. DYNAMO.

At Roker Park, Moscow Dynamos have the second floodlit game of their visit. Sunderland, in plain shorts, move smartly from the kick-off, with high hopes of repeating the Wolves' victory. But goalie Lev Yashin has other ideas!

Sunderland attacking again. Len Shackleton shoots, but he's offside.

Now the Russians are on the move. The ball goes to the right wing, and Shabrov centres to Ilyin - but this time he's offside! Half-time - no score, but plenty of missed chances.

Dynamos start the second half. Right back Rodionov receives and kicks upfield. The ball goes to Kuznetsov, who shoots - but Fraser gets it away.

Len Shackleton, the Jockey of Roker, looks serious tonight as he weaves through the Russian defence. Now he passes out to the right wing.

Another Sunderland opening - and another missed opportunity. And again it's Shackleton to Ken Chisholm, who attacks - but he trips over goalie Yashin, and he's miles offside.

Neither side seem to be able to press home. Yashin saves again.

With four minutes to go, the Dynamos grab their last chance. Ilyin shoots - and it's the only goal of the match!
