KEN NORRIS' TRIUMPH.

Runners from five countries take part in the international cross-country team race at Lille, in Northern France. Britain's team in this major event is Norris, Sando, Beak, and Hatton.

France's Addeche is one of the home favourites over this grueling course, but it's not going to be a runaway victory for anyone. Belgium, Holland and Spain provide the other three teams, and all five countries have sent their best.

With only a few yards left to go, it's a battle between Britain and France. And Ken Norris makes it, with Frank Sando seconds and Hamsud Amour of France a few seconds behind!
