

PATHE JOURNAL
6 Rue Francoeur,
PARIS (18°) France

Paris, December 12.1955

PARISIAN TAMED SPARROW.

No competition known

Positive developed : 16 meters = 54 ft

A grocery shop keeper in the oldest part of Paris, Rue de la Grange-aux-Belles, Mr. LAVAGNO once found a tiny sparrow fallen from the nest; and brought him up as a pet.

Parisian sparrows are known for their familiarity with parisians, but this one, is absolutely fearless and tamed. His best place to have a curious look on everything that is going on in the shop is to stay on his master's shoulder while he goes about his duties;

Kiki never goes into a coop, but just flies about the shop and doesn't miss a meal with his foster-parents. He likes going into his own house; and always curious looks at the window whenever customers are coming in or out.