

PIRIE - SPORTSMAN OF THE YEAR.

The Sporting-Record Cup for the Sportsman of the Year is awarded to Gordon Pirie after a national ballot. Pat Smythe is Sportsman of the Year for the third time running. Joe Davis is among the many sporting personalities present; so are Don Cockell and his wife. Representing the motor-cycling fraternity is Geoff Duke.

England soccer captain Billy Wright moves up to fourth place in the ballot.

Mr. Iain MacLeod, the new Minister of Labour - he's just moved into the job from the Health Ministry - makes the presentation. First the cup for Gordon Pirie.

Now for Pat Smythe's trophy. She is one of Britain's best Olympic hopes, and so is Gordon, now that his injured leg is making good progress. Good luck, and bring us back those gold medals!
