Next morning the birthday celebrations began with morning music by the band of the new Federal forces in front of the Palais Schaumburg.

Then the endless procession of congratulators began - headed by the grandchildren of the statesman. -

A prominent visitor was President Heuss. -

The Bavarian Christian Social Party (CSU) presented a young lion, the Bavarian symbol. Cardinal Archbishop Frings (Cologne) represented the German Catholic Episcopate.
Vice-Chancellor Blücher and the Federal Cabinet - Bishop D. Dibelius spoke for the Evangelic Church - Representatives of the Federal States followed - congratulations by Erich Ollenhauer for the Social Democratic Party.

Then Dr. Adenauer expressed his thanks for all the good wishes.
