

2-928201
2-0F8201

LONDON AIRPORT.

The R.A.F. forms a guard of honour at London Airport to greet a guest from South America - Brazil's President-Elect, Senhor Juscelino Kubitschek. Lord Scarborough, the Lord Chamberlain, and Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd are among the welcoming party.

Object of his 24-hour visit, Senhor Kubitschek, declares is to "dispel misconceptions about myself and my Government". For this surgeon turned politician, putting Brazil on the map will be the biggest operation of his career.

Waiting on the tarmac for another distinguished traveller is the Viscount which will take Sir Winston Churchill to his South of France holiday. He will be staying until the spring as the guest of a Geneva publisher at his villa near Nice.

Lord Douglas of Kirtleside, chairman of British European Airways, is at the airport to see Sir Winston off.

After a lifetime of battle, some might expect him to retire altogether. But give him a few weeks' rest - and the Member of Woodford will be back!