

C-488201
36/7.

MALAYA TALKS.

Home rule for Malaya is discussed in London, between Federation leaders and the British Government. Tengku Abdul Rahman, Chief Minister of the Federation, heads the Malayan delegation, while Britain's spokesman is Colonial Secretary Lomax-Boyd.

Britain favours Malayan self-government; Malaysians are eager for it. The question is - how? Abdul Rahman believes his people are ready. He tells the conference: