

BARNSELEY v. BLACKBURN.

When Barnsley are visited by Blackburn Rovers (in the half-and-half shirts) it's the home team who do most of the attacking in the first half. The Rovers kick off, but it's not long before Barnsley capture the initiative.

Before the Rover goal, left winger Bartlett breaks through - but it's a goal kick.

Goalie Elvy takes it.

The ball goes to right winger Douglas, and a Blackburn attack develops - but the Barnsley defenders are ready for it.

Brown, the home centre forward, attacks down the left wing. But there aren't any holes in the Rovers' defence, either.

Barnsley are soon on the offensive again. Inside left Graham sweeps forward and passes to right winger Kaye - but Kaye shoots wide.

Half time, and still no score. It's still anyone's game. Another Barnsley attempt fails.

Elvy, the Rover goalie, has plenty to do - but so has Hough, the keeper at the Barnsley end.

Now Blackburn are on the move again. Barnsley centre-half Sharp jumps - but misses, and Smith heads it in!

So the Rovers go on to the fifth round - but if it hadn't been for their fine goalkeeper, they wouldn't be looking so happy now!
