W.B.A. v. PORTSMOUTH

There are plenty of thrills for the crowd when white-shirted West Bromwich Albion are at home to Portsmouth. Pompey's centre forward Jackie Henderson wriggles through the defence and passes to inside right Gordon, who shoots - but Sanders gets it clear.

Now an Albion attack. The ball comes to George Lee - and it's in!

Still one-nil at half time, and the second half opens with a determined Pompey attempt to equalise. But the home defence gives nothing away, and one attack after another fails at the goal mouth.

Right back Howe stops a charge, and Albion goalie Sanders clears.

Eight minutes to go, and Lee is brought down in Portsmouth's penalty area. The ref awards a penalty to Albion - inside left Ronnie Allen takes the kick and it's in! A two-nil victory for Albion - against some pretty tough opponents!
