

FULHAM v. NEWCASTLE.

Second Division Fulham are at home to the Cup-holders, Newcastle United, before a 39,000 crowd. Newcastle, in striped shirts, kick off, and sweep straight into the attack.

Jackie Milburn takes a free kick. Goalie Ian Black stops it - but it's over the line for a corner.

Bobby Mitchell takes the corner, and left-half Lowe nearly clears - but Milburn smashes it home!

Seventeen minutes gone, and the Georgies are one up. Milburn again - dodging Haynes and passing to Stokes, who shoots - and it's in!

Fulham nil, Newcastle two - and the game's hardly started. But there's no stopping right winger Jackie Milburn. Once again he slips through to pass to Stokes.

From a goalmouth scramble, the ball goes to left half Tommy Casey - and the third for Newcastle!

Things look black for Fulham, but they rally their resources and soon they're giving Newcastle goalie Simpson some work to do. A centre missed by Woollard gives Fulham left-winger Trevor Chamberlain his chance - and it's in!

Second half and centre-forward Jezard leads a Fulham attack. He passes to Jimmy Hill, who wriggles through towards the Newcastle goal.

Hill to Chamberlain - Chamberlain shoots - and he's done it again!

Wait a minute - the ref's consulting the linesman - and he gives it offside! But Fulham aren't discouraged. Chamberlain tries again - and makes it! No doubt about that one!

And two minutes later, Trevor Chamberlain (who's never played in a Cup Tie before) does the hat trick! So now it's three all!

But there's more to come, Jezard tries - it goes to Hill - and that's it!

Fulham lead four-three, after being three down - what a day for the Cottagers! But the Cup giants fight back. Keeble charges Ian Black - and that's the equaliser. Four minutes later, Keeble heads a centre from Mitchell to net the winning goal! Hard luck, Fulham - but what a narrow shave for the Cup-holders?
