

56/15.INDIAN PRESIDENT.

At Amritsar, millions greet Mr. U.N. Dhasar, President of India's Congress Party. The occasion - the 61st annual congress of the party which campaigned for Indian independence for over half a century. An effigy of Ghandi is carried in the procession.

So vast is the crowd that for half an hour the three-mile-long procession has difficulty in getting started. When it does, the Presidential jeep makes up for lost time!
