Dear Sir,

On February 22 at 11 a.m. the Mayor of Dartmouth, Mrs. Dorothy Holwill is presenting the Freedom of the Borough to the officers and cadets ~~to~~ of Dartmouth Royal Naval College to mark the town's 50 years association with the College. After the ceremony on the New Ground, Dartmouth, 300 naval cadets will exercise their new privilege and march through the narrow streets of Dartmouth with bayonets fixed, drums beating and bands playing.

If you are interested I can arrange with the Town Clerk for your cameraman to be given every assistance.

Yours sincerely,

Miles Goodall

Managing Editor.

Dear Miss Field,

Thank you for your letter to say that you are sending down for the Freedom of the Borough to the Royal Naval College ceremony. I enclose a programme and a short list of the V.I.P.'s attending.

If you want me to book hotel accommodation for your cameraman let me know. The Town Clerk is sending you an invitation for him to a small reception party.

Yours sincerely,

Miles Goodall
