Icebound Icebreaking in Baltic Fjord

Wide stretches of the Baltic were transformed into an ice-desert. The waters between Germany and Denmark are frozen and impassible. Dozens of ships are icebound in the frozen waves of the Kiel Fjord.

SOS! a Steamer is immobile since 10 days. One of the crew is dangerously sick with pneumonia. The icebreaker "Preussen" comes to help with full speed ahead.

The ship is reached - there is hope for the sick man. A ship is towed in by the sea-tug. It is the only possibility to break the icy blockade.

Cheerish - for the icebreaker!
