SPURS v. WEST HAM.

Spurs (in white shirts) are at home to West Ham United before a 70,000 crowd at White Hart Lane. Here's a West Ham attack - and the visitors are awarded a free kick.

West Ham still attacking. Billy Dare passes out to the left wing, and in front of the Spur's goalmouth it's centred again - for a duel between Foan and goalie Reynolds. Now to Harry Hooper, who shoots but the defenders clear it to left-winger George Robb, who takes it away.

West Ham's right wing Hooper passes to John Dick.
Dick to Foan.

Foan back to Dick - he shoots! it's a goal!

And when Dick does it again within two minutes, Spurs really have to look to their laurels. They counter-attack fiercely.

And the attack nearly comes off - but the ball is handled. Spurs appeal for a penalty - which the ref allows.

Tommy Harner takes it - and scores! Spurs one, West Ham two. But wonder boy John Dick does the hat trick, and now Spurs are again two behind! But not for long. From a corner kick, Spurs winger George Robb heads it in for the fifth goal in 16 minutes!

Second half, and the excitement's terrific. Another Spurs corner - but it's cleared to Ken Tucker, who wriggles past the attackers - while West Ham supporters breathe again.

Now it's Spurs on the defensive again - but the ball goes over the bar.

Spurs' right wing are on the move, all out for the equaliser.

And from Robb's pass, Len Duquemin bangs it home! A magnificent Spurs recovery - and one more replay on the road to Wembley!
