

BURTON K. O'S. RESCH.

In Hamburg, 5,000 German boxing fans watch their middleweight hero Max Resch knock Britain's Alex Burton over the ropes. Resch sets the pace at the start, but although the German's been undefeated in his 24 fights - and has won 20 of them by a knock-out - Burton's an experienced fighter who knows how to wait his chance.

The tenth round, and Resch is on the attack, searching for an opening to land one of his famous hammer-blows.

The English boy takes the kind of punishment which has floored twenty men before him - but Resch can't make any impression.

Now Burton's fighting back - and that's it! a lightning right which sends the German rolling on the canvas.

Resch struggles to rise - but no, for the first time in his career he's defeated - and by a knockout!

Nice work, Alex - you've beaten the unbeatable!
