

SERWYN LLOYD IN INDIA.

Foreign Secretary Serwyn Lloyd is welcomed in Delhi by High Commissioner Malcolm MacDonald and Mrs. Pandit, Premier Nehru's sister. And it's a welcome to make him feel right at home.

Mr. Lloyd is on his way to Karachi for the SEATO Council meeting. During his two-day stay, he tells his hosts: "Britain and India maintain the democratic right to disagree. But we must not over-emphasise the points of difference. Above all, we share a common determination to do everything we can to preserve the peace of the world".
