HEARTS v. CELTIC.

Celtic - in heaped shirts - kick off against hearts in the Scottish F.A. Cup Final at Hampden Park. Celtic have the ball; John Cumming intercepts, but Celtic retrieve it.

Celtic attacking before the Hearts goalmouth.

The defenders get the ball away, but Celtic are soon pressing again. Hearts right half Dave MacKay fails to stop them - so does right back Kirk - but Kirk chases after the ball, and manages to deflect it over the line.

Now a Hearts attack - Alfie Conn loses it - Jimmy Wardhaugh gets it away -he's impeded, but MacKay comes to the rescue.

Alfie Conn races to beat the Celtic defence. He gets through - passes to Ian Crawford - and Crawford slams it home!

Second half, with Hearts battling to increase their one-nil lead. A quick tussle, and Celtic manage to clear for the moment. But centre forward Willie Bauld soon brings it back down the left wing.

Bauld centres.

Young and Fallon jump - but Crawford's there - and it's another goal for Hearts!

Celtic have got their work cut out if they're going to catch up now. They sweep down on the Hearts goal - goalie Duff drops it, and Mike Haughney's scores.

Hearts two, Celtic one. And now Hearts are taking a corner kick - goalie Dick Beattie jumps - it goes to Ian Crawford, who shoots wide. Goal kick to Celtic.

The ball goes loose, and Hearts kick up field. Willie Bauld beats Bobby Evans - Alfie Conn shoots - and Beattie can't save it! Hearts three, Celtic one!

And that's the final score. It's 49 years since Hearts were in the final. On the occasion it was Celtic who beat them - three-nil. Hearts have had to wait for half a century to get their revenge - now at last it's their's, and so is that precious Cup!
