

AUSSIE'S AT LORDS.

On their first full day in England, the Australian Test team are hard at work. Lord Alexander, the M.C.C. President, comes to Lord's to watch. Here's Colin McDonald, one of their opening batsmen, and lightning bowler Ray Lindwall.

All-rounder Alan Davidson bowls to John Rutherford, another opening batsman. And now Keith Miller, one of the greatest all-rounders, bowls to skipper Ian Johnson.

Miller to Johnson again.

And here's newcomer Pat Crawford, showing us that foot drag there's been so much fuss about.

Ian Craig, the team's youngest.

Ian Johnson again, bowling to John Rutherford.

Keith Miller takes a turn at the wicket.

Twenty-two-year-old Ron Archer.

Ian Craig bowls to Star batsman Neil Harvey.

We'll need a few matches to see how this team will shape up - but they're certainly a fine mixture of brain and brawn who'll give Peter May and his boys plenty of work!
