THE CUP COMES HOME

Manchester has downed tools to a man, to welcome home the City team after their brilliant 3-1 Cup victory over Birmingham. For the Cotton City has brought off the double - United are League champions, and City have won the Cup; and who's going to work on a day like this?

The team reach the Town Hall, where a civic welcome awaits them from Lord Mayor Tom Began. But the crowd don't want speeches - they want their hero, Bert Trautmann.

Bert can't get a word in either!

It's a long and nerve-racking road from the first round to a Wembley triumph - but a homecoming like this makes it all worth while!
