STARS AT THE FAIR.

Battersea Park Fun Fair is open again - and its first event is a Film Stars' Gala, organised by the Variety Club of Great Britain in aid of Children's charities. Weekend sailors include Jacqueline Curtis, Jean Marsh, Tom Pertwee, Jean Kent, and Tony Wright are feeling energetic. Tonia Bern brings a friend.

Here's Phyllis Calvert, up-and-coming young Janette Scott, and that grand actor Robert Morley.

Belinda Lee's conversation with John Gregson gets a bit involved.

Stars and starlets are kept busy by the autograph hunters - including Kenneth Moore.

But after all, this is a fun fair, and Joy Webster's determined to make the most of it - and she's not the only one!
