

ST. LOUIS CHIMPANZES.

That spring feeling is stirring the chimpanzees at the St. Louis Zoo, where things are happening that would drive any self-respecting ape back to the jungle. Somebody's told the chimps about the water-skiing craze, and with the help of a motor-boat of sorts, they prove that the chimpanzee is no different from any of the other fashionable resorts.

In fact, this resort is outstanding. It's the only place in the world where you'll find water-skiing without water. And with all the gimmicks, too.

Looks good, doesn't it? But if you ask us, it's all a ramp.

Stop press news from the zoo is that the sea-lions are organizing a protest strike!
