

17/9/66

Camera : V. Parkash

Story : MUSLIMS OF INDIA CELEBRATE 'ID'

Eyemo Rolls TriX 300 Daylight.

After 30 days of fasting the Muslims celebrate the festival of Id which is once in a year. To thank the Lord, Muslims pray in huge congregation. The great mosque of Delhi 'JAMA MASJID' is crowded with thousands of Muslims and many have to say their prayers by lining up on the steps.

-----

Roll 1 & 2.

Shot of the Jama Masjid - the famous mosque in Delhi which was ~~built~~ built by Shahjahan who built the Taj Mahal at Agra. Long shot of Muslims saying their prayers on the steps. Another shot of the Muslims as they bow down while praying. Shot of the people coming down from the steps after the prayers. Long shot of the mosque. Shot of the people coming down the steps after the prayers. Shots of the crowd arriving for prayers. Shots taken inside show scenes of washing prior to the prayers. Sitting on the pavements of a small tank, the Muslims taking a wash which is very essential prior to prayers. Shot of the public arriving and lining up for the prayers. Various shots of the prayers. Shots of the crowd as they bow down while praying. Various shots as the prayers are in progress. Shots of people coming out after the prayers. ~~Shots of the crowd as they bow down while praying.~~ Shot of the rustic 'giant wheel' which is pulled by hands but is source of pleasure for its riders.

-----

END

511: