

D-F#1f01

56/49a

NIAGARA ROCK SLIDE.

Tremendous rock falls crush a huge Niagara Falls power plant like an eggshell, killing one man and hurling wreckage into the deep Niagara Gorge,. Two thirds of the plant is sheared off, and water that once drove the great turbines now churns through the ruins.

Water undermining the rock structure caused the disaster - and it's estimated that the bill will come to a hundred million dollars.