

BRITISH MOVIE TONE NEWS

EDITORIAL DOPE SHEET

56-54

Cameraman N. FISHER

Soundman _____

Date 28.6.56

Cut Length _____

Location MOSCOW

Type of Film _____

Description of cut subject : "RUSSIANS INSPECT COMET II"

Officers of the Red Air Force and technicians of the aviation industry turned out to inspect the Comet II which brought Secretary of State for Air, Mr. Nigel Birch to Moscow. It was the intention to take up a party of 30 for a flight, but an electrical fault in the Comet prevented this.

Roll. 1. (1) Party of technicians and officers arriving.

(2) Various shots of Russians examining and photographing the plane.

Roll. 2. (3) Going aboard, a Russian Air Force Officer reads out the names.

Interior of cabin showing Russian examining equipment.

Roll. 3. G.U. Tupolev, famous Russian aircraft designer, looking at the Comet. He is the designer of the TU-104.

G.V. Showing a TU-104 and the Comet.

Red Air Force photographer taking close-ups of landing gear inside one of the wheel-bags.

ALSO COVERED BY: EXCLUSIVE

Also covered by :-

U.S.S.R. AIR FORCE DAY RECEPTION IN MOSCOW

On the 24th of June, after the Air Display was over, Marshal of the Soviet Union, Georgy Zhukov, the Minister of Defence of the U.S.S.R., gave a reception at the Soviet Army Central Club on the occasion of U.S.S.R. Air Force Day.

Present at the reception are Nikolai Bulganin, Lazar Kaganovich, Georgy Malenkov, Anastas Mikoyan, Vyacheslav Molotov, Nikita Khrushchov and other leaders of the Soviet State.

The reception was attended by military leaders, foreign guests, who have arrived for the Air Display, diplomats.

Later the guests left the Krasnoznamyonny Hall for the Club's park, where the unconstrained conversations continued.

Here toasts were given for friendship among nations, for the peoples of Great Britain, France, the United States of America, for the Great Chinese people.

Notes were compared about the Air Display by Mr. N. Birch, British Air Minister; General Twining, Chief of the United States' Air Forces Staff; General Baillis, head of the French delegation.

The guests walk around the park lanes, go boating on the lake.

In one of the boats we see Mr. N. Birch, British Air Minister, with Nikolai Bulgain behind the oars.

—ooc000ooo—