

GREAT YORKSHIRE SHOW.

Agriculture of the North is on parade at the Great Yorkshire Show, Harrogate. A record cattle entry has to face expert criticism, while among the horse entries the brood mares with their foals are always an attraction. Meanwhile their cousins are trying to prove that police horses are politically impartial - one banner's the same as another to them - as far as they are concerned it might just as well be a string of washing.

Where do you think you're going-off to pick some flowers? Well, this is the right place to start - or if you prefer something a little more energetic, how about the log-sawing contest!

The centuries-old skill of the blacksmith never fails to draw an audience.

They'll have a job to pick up a scene among this lot. The show seems to have everything that matters in Yorkshire on tap - including the latest from Leeds!
