

Monday, 30th July, 1956.

Clan Maclean entering Fowey River ^{escorted} ~~escorted~~ by tugs.

Shots of cadets lining bridge.

Cadets coming down rope ladder.

Shots going ashore.

Shots in Seamens Mission.

Shots coming away to board the bus which was to take them to school of Navigation, Southampton.

In an interview with Capt. Herbert Stewart, of the Mayana he said that the boys behaved extradinarily well. He was very proud of them as this was their first sea trip. He spoke highly of the way in which the Clan Maclean took them off.

Capt. of the Clan Maclean - Cap.t Cater.