

2-205f01
56/75.

PRINCESS GRACE VISITS HOME.

Princess Grace of Monaco arrives at New York with Prince Rainier on the S.S. United States - the Princesses' first visit to her homeland since she left it, as film star Grace Kelly, for her royal wedding in the Mediterranean pocket state. There's an heir to the throne of Monaco on the way, so the royal couple have to face plenty of questions on their future plans.

Princess Grace is asked what it feels like to be seeing the United States again:

PRINCESS: "Pleased to be back, and very exciting to come on the same boat that the prince came on last year and we are just very happy to be in New York"

REPORTER. To the Prince: "Have you taken any courses on how to change a nappy yet?"

PRINCE. "No not yet"

REPORTER: "Do you expect to?"

PRINCE. "I should think so - yes"

REPORTER: "Do you care whether it is a boy or girl?"

PRINCE: "Absolutely not. No I don't mind at all"