FIREMEN'S DAY

In the ancient beautiful Piazza di Siena, in the heart of Villa Borghese, a grandiose parade was displayed by the Firemen at the presence of a large crowd, besides the President of Republic GRONCHI, the Home Secretary Hon. TAMBRONI and several officials.

There were attending also numerous representatives of 25 countries' Firemen, among which : France, Jugoslavia, Holland, Belgium, Turkey, New Zealand, Luxemburg, etc.

Were ~~be~~ also participating a unit of frog-firemen.

On his arrival at Piazza di Siena, President Gronchi reviewed the ranged men, escorted by Sen. Melè, Hon. Tambroni and Hon. Targetti.

Next came the award of the flag ceremony: a golden medal for "civil valour" on account of the high courageous and valiant service fulfilled by the fire-brigades on occasion of the exceptional, heavy snow-falls over middle and southern Italy, last winter.

Then the firemen units defiled in front of the presidential tribune.

At last a fantastic gymnastics professional display was performed by these brave men.
