It's Rock and Roll at Rockdale as Sydney feels the impact of the craze that's now world-wide. Well, dig that real square. Move over and make way for a chap that's really hepped to rock, rock, rock around the clock.

And here's Elvis the double-jointed Pelvis.

This pair are certainly rolling. They're smooth see, and they rock, rock until they go off their rockers! Of course, you know the kind of clock that these experts rock around - that's right, Cuckoo!

Now, here's some more thrills. You will notice that the couple about to take the floor are dressed with quiet taste, making their attire equally suitable for rock and rocking, Weddings or funerals.

Wow, this Elvis has busted his Pelvis! Oh no, just a case of split personality. Ah, why else, he didn't come apart. Oh, I see, the applause is for them. Man, they're sure swinging it!

Come on guys and dolls, let's really get this joint jumping.

Man, oh man, Hey stop the boat let me off. All this rocking is making me sea-sick - or something!
