

News of the Day
Dec. 13, 1956, Vol. 28-#233

62 JK

IKE GOLFS WITH ST. LAURENT!

At Augusta, Georgia, aboard a caddie car, President Eisenhower and his guest Prime Minister St. Laurent of Canada ride out for a round of golf. The two chief executives in a foursome with Mr. St. Laurent's daughter, Mrs. Hugh O'Donnell, and club pro Ed Dudley.

The Prime Minister sends it driving. It's a nine hole game of best-ball golf.

Now the President whams it. The two leaders are both enthusiastic golf players, and their match demonstrates the friendly relations between the UN and Canada. The score? Just as it should be: all even!