

2-824F01

SCHAUMBURGER CHILDREN'S CHOIR.

In a little village church near Bueckeburg, in Germany, the carved figures of the altar look down on a congregation which might have stepped out of a painting by an old master. They have gathered to hear the world-famous Schauburger Children's Choir sing their greetings to Christmas with one of the best-loved carols of them all.