

2-587501

57/3

THE SAAR RETURNS TO GERMANY.

The Saar is German again, after more than 11 years. Chancellor Konrad Adenauer rides in triumph to Saarbrücken, the capital, where he is greeted by Dr. Ney, the Saarland premier. Franco-German agreement, and a plebiscite, have ended the decade of French control.

In the Municipal Theatre, Chancellor Adenauer welcomes the Saarlanders back into the German fold.

Unity, and peace, and freedom - and though the words have changed, the tune is very familiar!