

SPURS v. LEICESTER.

Fifty-seven thousand fans at White Hart Lane watch Leicester City, in white shorts, kick off against Tottenham Hotspur. The visitors try to move into the attack, but the Spurs defence break it up, and in less than no time Leicester goalie Anderson is under fire. A Goalmouth tussle ends in George Robb being fouled.

Tommy Harner takes the penalty - and Anderson saves. The corner is taken by Robb - Stokes flicks it back to Marchi.

To play safe, goalie Anderson runs forward to clear. Lucky Leicester!

Spurs attacking again - Dymon passes - and a great chance is missed!

Harner lebs a free kick to Blanchflower - Anderson collects brilliantly but the ball is over the line! Spurs are one up!

Now a free kick for Leicester - but Ted Ditchburn steps it - and steps Arthur Rowley, too!

Second half, and Leicester on the defence again. But skipper Jack Froggatt starts an attack which carries him past Tommy Harner and into the Spurs half.

Rowley heads the goal - but right back Baker gets it clear.

Back in the Leicester goalmouth, Froggatt beats Bobby Smith to the ball - Ogilvie kicks it away - but the Spurs forwards are ready, and the attack's renewed!

Another fine save by Anderson. But Spurs are determined and they're soon back again, for a real goalmouth dogfight which gives Robb his chance to make it two-nil. So after the most thrilling Cup Tie of the Third Round, it's Spurs to meet Chelsea in Round Four.
